Company Offers Creativity Without Borders

Ohio Based Marketing Firm Cements a Working Relationship in Europe

Columbus, OH – Baker Creative has announced that they now have a sister company based in Madrid, Spain. This relationship with Izera will help spread the effective nature of the ideas and compassionate work that both these firms provide. Baker Creative has been developing projects for Spanish speaking audiences for years so a partnership with a Madrid based company was an easy fit. This working relationship will broaden the reach of what Izera and Baker Creative can each provide and effectively help businesses with creative solutions on both sides of the Atlantic.

The advantage of a sister company is more than just spreading business and marketing ideas across the pond, it can strengthen the international relations of our country, one working partnership at a time.

About Izera

In the creative business for more than 20 years, Izera has been an international leader in web development, marketing and advertising. This company has a long list of devoted clients that have profited from the ideas and solutions that Izera provides. For more information on this company, visit, www.izera.net
